Paying interest on that $140 million, we're operating at that point a very small temporary facility, more more likely than not, still losing money on that operation as we are losing money today. There's nothing to be gained from delay. We we want to open the big permanent casino tomorrow. If we could open it tomorrow, I would be open tomorrow. We have absolutely nothing to gain from a delay. So I just wanted to make that that point clear. CHAIRMAN HEBERT: Any further questions from the board? MR. SHOLES: Yes. CHAIRMAN HEBERT:

Additionally, I'm very familiar with and look forward to working with the new director of the gaming division who has served as my right hand, left hand and everything else when I was director there, Director Himel as well as and I will ask him to stand as well, Deputy Director Matthew Meek. So I look forward to continuing working with you all and the continued fine work of both Louisiana State Police and the attorney general's office as well. Finally, I would like to acknowledge two very special ladies in the audience, my mother, and she's going to be embarrassed, but I'm going to ask her to stand as well. She's being defiant, but that's the lady who is responsible for anything good that is within me. My wife, she is not going to stand. Oh, she stood.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	sister, who is also in the audience and for whom I hope I set a good example. And one of my best friends, I call him my true brother, a former parish attorney for East Baton Rouge, and now and I'm going to mess up your title chief disciplinary counsel for the Louisiana State Bar Association, Mr. Anderson Dotson. Thank you all for being here. Okay. So I'm off my soapbox. So we now move to item 8. Mr. Jackson, you know I've been looking forward to this moment. I would ask for a motion that we adjourn. MR. JACKSON: So moved. CHAIRMAN HEBERT: Can I get a second? MS. HAMILTON-ACKER: Second. CHAIRMAN HEBERT: All right. Seconded by Ms. Hamilton-Acker. All in favor?
