DECISION OF THE LOUISIANA GAMING CONTROL BOARD

IN RE: CHARLES R. BROWN
NO. P040034321

RULING ON APPLICATION FOR REHEARING

The matter before the Louisiana Gaming Control Board ("Board") is a request for rehearing of the revocation of Charles R. Brown's non-key gaming employee permit, No. P040034321.

A "Notice of Recommendation of Revocation" of Mr. Brown's permit was sent by certified mail to the permittee. It was received on September 26, 2003, as evidenced by the signed return receipt. The recommendation was based on the alleged failure of Mr. Brown to file state tax returns and pay state taxes owed. The permittee was notified that he had 10 days to request an administrative hearing regarding the recommendation and informed that failure to request a hearing would result in the revocation of his permit without further proceedings.

The permittee did not request a hearing. As a result, on October 22, 2003, the Board issued a "Notice of Revocation." The notice was received by the permittee on October 27, 2003, as evidenced by the signed return receipt of the certified mailing. Mr. Brown timely requested a rehearing of the revocation.

Mr. Brown contends that the Louisiana Department of Revenue has cleared him of any taxes owed and that he has tax clearances.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

Louisiana Revised Statutes 49:959 provides in pertinent part:

A. A decision or order in a case of adjudication shall be subject to rehearing, reopening, or reconsideration by the agency, within ten days from the date of its entry. The grounds for such action shall be either that:

- (1) The decision or order is clearly contrary to the law and the evidence;
- (2) The party has discovered since the hearing evidence important to the issues which he could not have with due diligence obtained before or during the hearing;
- (3) There is a showing that issues not previously considered ought to be examined in order properly to dispose of the matter; or
- (4) There is other good ground for further consideration of the issues and the evidence in the public interest.

“Adjudication” is defined as the agency process for the formulation of a decision or order.

La. R.S. 49:951(1).

Charles Brown has presented grounds for reconsideration. Therefore, this matter will be forwarded to the Louisiana Gaming Control Board Hearing Office for the scheduling of an administrative hearing on the “Notice of Recommendation of Revocation” before the Hearing Officer where evidence may be introduced and a determination can be made as to the appropriate action to be taken.

THUS DONE AND SIGNED on this the 19th day of November, 2003.
