DECISION OF THE LOUISIANA GAMING CONTROL BOARD

IN RE: TAMARA R. REED
NO. P040041007

RULING ON APPLICATION FOR REHEARING

The matter before the Louisiana Gaming Control Board ("Board") is a request for rehearing of the revocation of the non-key gaming employee permit of Ms. Reed.

On August 5, 2003, a "Notice of Recommendation of Revocation" was received by Ms. Reed as evidenced by the signed return receipt of certified mail. The recommendation was based on the permittee's failure to obtain a tax clearance from the State Department of Revenue. The permittee was notified that an administrative hearing must be requested within 10 days of receipt of the notice and informed that failure to request a hearing would result in the revocation of her permit without further proceedings.

Ms. Reed did not request a hearing. As a result, on September 2, 2003, the Board issued a "Notice of Revocation" which was received on September 4, 2003, as evidenced by the signed return receipt of certified mail. Ms. Reed timely requested a rehearing of the revocation, alleging that upon receipt of the "Notice of Recommendation of Revocation" she contacted the Department of Revenue and was told that a tax clearance would be forwarded to the Division. She did not request a hearing because she "thought everything was taken care of."

LEGAL ANALYSIS

Louisiana Revised Statute 49:959 gives the grounds for an agency rehearing, reopening, or reconsidering its decision and provides, in pertinent part:

A. A decision or order in a case of adjudication shall be subject to rehearing, reopening, or reconsideration by the agency, within ten days from the date of its entry. The grounds for such action shall be either that:

- (1) The decision or order is clearly contrary to the law and the evidence;
- (2) The party has discovered since the hearing evidence important to the issues which he could not have with due diligence obtained before or during the hearing;
- (3) There is a showing that issues not previously considered ought to be examined in order properly to dispose of the matter; or
- (4) There is other good ground for further consideration of the issues and the evidence in the public interest.

“Adjudication” is defined as the agency process for the formulation of a decision or order. La. R.S. 49:951(1).

Ms. Reed has presented grounds for reconsideration. Therefore, this matter will be forwarded to the Louisiana Gaming Control Board Hearing Office for the scheduling of an administrative hearing before the Hearing Officer where evidence may be introduced and a determination made as to the appropriate action to be taken and the penalty, if any, to be imposed.
